Hi [name], this year instead of gifts, I wanted to ask you to support my Women Build fundraising page with Pensacola Habitat for Humanity. Your donations help build a safe home for a deserving family in our community, and your support would mean so much to me during the holidays. You can donate directly here: [insert personal Qgiv link here]. Thank you for your support and Merry Christmas!

Hey [name], I hope you are having a great holiday season so far! I'm reaching out because this year I am celebrating Christmas a little differently. Instead of gifts, I am asking my friends and family to donate to my Women Build page for Pensacola Habitat for Humanity. Every donation matters, whether big or small, and yours could be a part of making a difference for a deserving family in our community. If you would like to donate, please visit [insert personal Qgiv page]. Thank you so much for considering it, and Merry Christmas!

Hi [name], this year I'm choosing to skip gifts and asking everyone to contribute to my Women Build fundraiser. I am aiming to raise money for Pensacola Habitat for Humanity's Women Build project, which will support building a home for a deserving family. Your donation, big or small, would truly make a difference. If you would like to show your support, please visit [insert personal Qgiv page]. I hope you have a Merry Christmas!
